Tremendous Fall in Prices of Stocks Checked by Buying by Bankers.

BY EDWARD W. PICKARD JPTIII collapse of prices regardless of letrinals values made the first three days of the week the wildest the stock exchanges of the country ever and experienced. Paper profits of many billions were wiped out and many thousands of amateur specuintors who had been revelling in "easy money" for months were eliminated completely. The professional bears grimly hammered away and the hysterical public dumped their securities n and a flood that on Tuesday the total of shares sold on the New York a blasts, repeated at two minute inter | Exchange was more than twenty-six FF293844.94

By Wednesday prices had reached so low a level that the big bankers, rate. Based on Superstition A woman recently died because her superstition would not allow her to call in a doctor on Friday. Saturday was too late. That superstition is still rife, is to some extent proven by the fact that hundreds of thousands of people still consider that it is unlucky to walk under ladders. That it is unlucky to spill sait. That three candles on a table bring bad luck. That crossed knives spell unhappiness. That to cut one's nalls on a Friday is to court disaster. That the new moon seen through glass is an evil partent. That to open an umbrella to the house means misfortune. Similarly, cross one's path, or that to fall up-England today who exclaim "Touch wood" on the slightest provocation. VISITORS to General Motors' 1268-acre Proving Ground marvel at the sight of a complete weather bureau and ask what it is for

The answer is that in the testing of cars every possible factor that might affect a car's performance is considered by General Motors'

So precise are some of the tests that even the difference between a sunny day and a parely cloudy day-or between a north breeze and a south breeze- is considered

With each day's record of the mechanical tests applied to a car on the roads and hills of the Proving Ground is included a report of the exact weather conditions prevailing. The engineers then can know how weather affects performance, and can have a comparable record so that every car tested is given an equal opportunity to prove uself under exactly the same conditions.

Find Various Uses for Hulks of Old Vessels

On the New England coast, when an old schooner is condemned for active sea service and sold for junk, it does not necessarily mean that she will be hauled up on a beach and burned or consigned to some ship graveyard to awalt breaking up. Old hulls frequently have unsuspected market value.

First, of course, sails, rigging, deck hardware and all miscellaneous eguip ment that may be converted into east are removed Masts out of old schooners frequently take on a new lease of life as derricks, as Angpoles on public parks or squares, or to replace broken masts or spars in other craft.

Timbers and planking from a vesse that has salled the seas for years and become thoroughly impregnated with salt are in much demand by dealers in smaked herring. The smudge from them is said to be uncounted in inparting delicious flavor to newly caught herring. Sometimes old bulls are sold intact as additions to some burbor breakwater or perhaps as a

Give It Various Name: The mines of musical Instruments as they appear in different languages are often very misleading Most Americans coming across a reference In Dutch to a "buzula" would readily lunging this to be a bassoon. They would, however, be quite wrong, for it is what in England, France, Italy and America is called a trombone though the bass instrument is sometimes in France called the sacquebuse. which shows its connection with the old Instrument most people know only through the psalms, called the sackbut. Its German name is posaune, i name that is sometimes used in England for an organ stop which has the same kind of tone as the trombone and trumpet. Curlously, while trom bone is a word of Latin origin and posaune and bazuln are old Teutonic, it is more than likely that these latter words also originated in the old Roman bucina, a shell-shaped trumper A THE WAR THE PROPERTY OF THE

---if any other tires are "better" or even as good

If you are told that some other tire "has a better tread than the Goodyear." . . .

Stop and think, if this is actually true, why millions more people buy Goodyear Tires

If you are told that some other tire "has a better carcass than the Goodyear" . . .

Before you accept such a statement, stop and think why millions more people buy Goodycar Tires. There is nothing in the world which compels car owners to choose Goodyear Tires. If any other tire offered any advantages over a Goodyear, would not the public be buying that other make in largest numbers? If any other tire equaled a Goodyear, would it not be as popular as Goodyear?

Instead, you find Goodyear producing MILLIONS MORE TIRES than any other company outdistancing all competition by greatly increasing lengths each year. Stop and think WHY.

Most car owners have had years of experience with tires. They compare their experiences with those of their friends. The buyers are wise, very wise, today Enthusiastic "talk," strong "claims, advertising that promises everything your experienced ear owner is little impressed by such calcamanship

The one thing, however, which continues to sell him is this fact, which checks with his personal experience and that of his friends. MILLIONS MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES because billions of miles of motoring over roads everywhere continually prove Goodyear Tires to be the best

Best not by any small margin—but best by so marked a degree in life, traction, mileage and freedom from trouble that it means a great many dollars saved each year to always buy Goodyears!
